Good morning, Lisa, anything
for me today?

White or like color body bag
being pulled out.

(hardly getting anything).

Lisa, I know I need to go out there but where?

She cut me off before I could finish asking and said "Where the sun don't shine!"

Where is that?

 Shot glass
upside down

The something being lifted up
that's attached to it

T that becomes a hammer when it comes into focus.

and people coming
and going, in and

~~She pours something on a cloth then wipers the window with it. It's oily so the glass becomes all smeared and foggy so you can't see. Then the stuff is dripping as if it were just sprayed on there.~~

She pours something on a cloth then wipers the window with it. It's oily so the glass becomes all smeared and foggy so you can't see. Then the stuff is dripping as if it were ^{just} sprayed on there.

Asked why does she do that?

A skull moving toward the cutter. its mouth/jaws partly open and in line w/ the cutter, as if the intention is to cut or break it.

Last night, I had many visions most of which I cannot remember but I do recall "Currency" was significant. I also woke up hearing "Oooh, baby, I think I love you from head to toe." Heard it multiple times and still keep hearing it.
